Stacey and Rob, owners of Sojourn Ventures, purchased Casa San Marco in 2002 and lovingly restored it over many years along with local Cortona artists, artisans, and tradesmen. You can feel the warm and inviting spirit of this historic home from the moment you step through its doors. Casa San Marco occupies the top two floors of a former 16th-century palazzo and overlooks the stunning Church of San Francesco, along with the beautiful valley below. The design and furnishing of Casa San Marco have taken inspiration from Stacey's affinity for flea markets and interior design. The result is an eclectic, artful, and aesthetically pleasing 500-year-old home. From the street entrance, one enters a small foyer and climbs a set of century-old stone stairs to the first floor of Casa San Marco. This floor consists of a living room, two master bedrooms, and a library/den. Both the library/den and one of the bedrooms have access to the terrace with magnificent valley views. Upstairs you'll find two spacious bedrooms that share a full bathroom. Grab a glass of vino Nobile and watch the sunset from the terrace, this home is truly something special.
